OnLine Course (2nd edition)
WHAT SHOULD YOU KNOW ABOUT YOUR RODENT FACILITY?

OUR COURSE AIM
This two-day on-line course is designed to provide the key aspects for the management of a modern laboratory rodent facility, with a particular focus on IVC systems.

Layout & functional areas, bio-containment & bio-exclusion, washing & decontamination, health monitoring concepts will be described with particular attention to new technological developments, scientific needs of research and management concepts.

Theoretical and practical examples will be used to enhance the participants’ knowledge and improve their skills on everyday activities developing a critical approach to the choices made daily for the management of the animal care and safety of operators.

COURSE TOPICS
Key components in an animal facility
Practical examples of a rodent animal facility
Bio-containment & Bio-exclusion
Housing systems
Cage change procedures
Washing
Decontamination
Autoclaving
Cage and bottle cycles
Health monitoring programmes

DATE & TIME
TUESDAY OCTOBER 12, 2021
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 13, 2021
from 9:00 to 15:30 CEST TIME ZONE

contact us
+390245076787
secretary@fondazioneguidobernardini.org
www.fondazioneguidobernardini.org